

Ramsauer & Stürmer acquired by Aptean

July 2021

GHZ Partners advises Aptean on its acquisition of Ramsauer & Stürmer

GHZ Partners is pleased to announce that it acted as the exclusive financial advisor to Aptean, a global provider of industry specific enterprise resource planning (ERP) and supply chain software solutions, on its acquisition of Ramsauer & Stürmer, a leading Austrian ERP software company.

Headquartered in Salzburg, Austria, Ramsauer & Stürmer offers clients a full spectrum of ERP functionality with its rs2 business software to a variety of industries, including construction, cable car systems, food and beverage, service providers, non-profits, and production. The company caters to over 400 clients around the world and employs 150 people.

This transaction will strengthen Aptean's footprint in the rapidly growing DACH (Germany, Austria, and Switzerland) market. "Ramsauer & Stürmer is a trusted ERP solutions and implementation partner for its global network of customers, and we are confident we will see continued success together in the DACH region," said TVN Reddy, CEO of Aptean. "Their talented staff have over 35 years of expertise delighting customers across industries with a compelling suite of software solutions. We are eager to work with the Ramsauer & Stürmer team to help continue to advance their technology and drive this exciting phase of growth for the business," added Volker Schinkel, General Manager of Aptean DACH.

"Aptean stands out as a leader in its differentiated focus on developing industry-specific software, and we look forward to joining forces," said Ramsauer & Stürmer's Managing Director Markus Neumayr. "With Aptean's global scale and significant capabilities, we will be able to accelerate investment in our business and better support our customers at a time when demand for digital workflows and optimized processes has never been stronger. We are excited to work closely with the Aptean team to continue to deliver the absolute reliability, broad expertise, premium quality and innovative thinking our customers trust us to provide."

"Thank you to GHZ Partners for supporting us on this transaction." said Aptean's EVP Brad Debold.

The terms of the transaction were not disclosed, and it is expected to close by the end of the third quarter of 2021 following regulatory approval.
